

Additional Information – ESDC SSR Core Course

1. Conditions of Participation

a. Expected Participant's Profile

In accordance with the Curriculum, the Participants should preferably be middle to senior level professionals deployed or just about to be deployed in support of a bilateral, regional or multilateral mission to support security and justice reform within EU or EU Member State and/or collaborate country structures. The course is also open to those involved in programming, programme management and/or in political/policy dialogue in the wider context of SSR.

a. Expected Preparations

Participants are required to complete selected ESDC e-Learning modules in the preparatory phase preceding the residential part of this course. The timely completion of these eLearning modules is a precondition for receiving the course certificate. A constant well working internet connection and ongoing presence over email is therefore compulsory for participants, also in the preparation (non-residential) phase.

b. Course Language & Expected Attendance

The course language is English, and participants must be fully proficient in English to be able to engage in discussions and fully benefit from the training.

Late arrivals or early departures cannot be accepted. The intense course programme does furthermore not allow for any additional commitments during the course. Absence during the course may result in disqualification from the course diploma.

c. Certificate

Successful participants are rewarded with an official ESDC certificate at the end of the residential course phase. The certificate will only be granted if the pre-residential e-learning and the residential phase have both been completed successfully.

b. Selection Criteria

From all timely submitted applications, a Course Admission Board, consisting of subject matter experts strives to select a highly qualified group of participants to ensure the set course standard. The selection process considers a balance in professional and organisational backgrounds, age, nationality and gender.

Qualified female candidates are strongly encouraged to apply!

Annex 1

The selection of the Admission Board is final and cannot be challenged.

Depending on applicable national SARS COV II regulations, selection and admission may also be subject to the travel and immigration regulations accordingly (see specific point below).

c. Course Cost

The ESDC Courses are a capacity building measure by EU member states for their personnel working in or being deployed to CSDP missions. According to the agreement by the EU member states, the following cost sharing arrangement has been decided: The country where the ESDC course takes place is the course host and covers all general course-related issues while the sending member states cover the cost for the individual participants they send (see details below).

To be covered by participants:

a. Travel and Full Board Accommodation

Participants are to organise and book their travel to the course premises to arrive at the accommodation in the afternoon of Friday which is the course starting date. Due to limited availability of public and private ground transport to the course location, the cost for the transfer from/to the airport can be costly if not arranged in advance. The course organisation strives to make collective bus transport options available which can be booked in advance over the hotel.

More detailed guidance on available ground transport options will be provided to the confirmed participants.

Any costs for immigration to Austria are to be covered by the participants, this also includes visa fees, costs for required tests and vaccinations for SARS COV II, if required.

Accommodation and meals for the duration of the course will be organised at a suitable hotel and must be booked there by the selected participants, once their participation has been officially confirmed by the ASPR. Expected prices for accommodation range from 120 to 150 EUR, in addition, organised meals for the course also need to be covered by the participants.

Detailed joining instructions will be issued to confirmed participants only. Applicants/sending entities are kindly requested to commence bookings only when the official confirmation of participation has been received.

Covered by the Course Host:

b. Conference Costs & Hosted Dinner

Costs for Expert Trainers, course materials, the conference facility and 2 coffee breaks per course day are covered by the Republic of Austria as course host nation, there the Federal Ministry of Defence in the framework of the cooperation programme with the ASPR.

d. Health Insurance and SARS COV II

Annex 1

Note: These are the regulations known at the time of the announcement of the course; they may change according to official regulations.

Participants are to be fully covered by a valid health insurance; the ASPR and the course host do not cover any medical costs, including emergencies and costs for the treatment of SARS COV II infections.

All official regulations of the Republic of Austria for SARS COV II must be observed for immigration and the duration for the stay and are the responsibility of the participant.

Participants must bring their own FFP-2 masks and wear them as per the regulations.

Relevant safety measures will be set up for the running of the course to guarantee maximum protection for all participants and persons tasked with the course implementation.
