Administrative instructions

The course is open to participants from the EU's institutions and Member States. Participants should be working in conflict prevention, conflict management and/or post-conflict recovery and stabilisation contexts related to the Protection of Cultural Heritage at an operational level. In line with the integrated and holistic approach to the protection of cultural property, participants may be civilian, military or police staff.

Applications: Applications from the EU Member States or from EU institutions and agencies must be made by designated nominators via the ESDC secure internet system, ENLIST at;

<https://esdc.europa.eu/enlist/login>

The list of ENLIST nominators can be retrieved from the ESDC website at;

<https://esdc.europa.eu/nominators/>

Registration and deadline: The registration period will end on 17 May 2024. Registrations will not be final until they have been confirmed by the ESDC Secretariat AND the ENLIST registration form has been completed by the nominated participant. Each nominator is kindly requested to nominate participants in order of priority. Further course information will be send to confirmed participants.

Language: The working language will be English, without translation.

E-learning: The course will be preceded by a mandatory e-learning module, which needs to be completed before the residential phase starts.

Attendance: Participants' attendance is mandatory on every day of the course. A certificate will be awarded on the last day to course participants who have completed the full course, including the e-learning modules.

Costs: There is no course fee. All costs related to participants' travel, accommodation and meals must be covered by the sending authorities.

Liability and insurance: In the event of a medical emergency, the costs should be covered by the participant's medical insurance provided by the sending country/organisation. The organisers do not provide health or accident insurance for participants

The course will take place at the Naval Museum at the seaside promenade in the centre of Gdynia
(address: street Zawiszy Czarnego 1B, City Gdynia).
